

2018 BAKER COUNTY DEMOCRATIC VOTERS GUIDE

Please vote early. Visit us at: BakerCountyDemocrats.org

U.S. Representative: Jamie McLeod-Skinner represents rural values. She will continue her lifelong commitment to public service. Jamie will work for us, our families and our communities – and not for special interests. She has elected-office experience, national and international business experience, and has top priorities of promoting livable wages and achieving healthcare for all. (Visit her web site, and follow her on her Facebook page.) And check out the “Walden Sold You Out” Facebook page to see how out of touch he has become.

Oregon Governor: Kate Brown, our hard-working incumbent, is focused on increasing graduation rates, helping small businesses grow, and protecting our natural resources.

Oregon State Senator, 30th District: Solea Kabokov is a life-long activist working for social, racial, economic and environmental justice. She is committed to transparency and accountability without the influence of special interests, corporate power or money.

County Commissioner, Position 3: Bruce Nichols advocates for transparency, fiscal responsibility, economic development, wise use of natural resources, and care of public lands.

State Ballot Measure Recommendations

Yes on 102, which allows local government to issue bonds to develop affordable housing.

No on 103, which forbids taxes on groceries, and limiting taxes on grocery-related businesses.

No on 104, which makes it harder to remove tax breaks and loopholes for big corporations.

No on 105, which would make the job of local law enforcement in minority communities harder.

No on 106, which would restrict access to legal abortion in the state.

Baker School District Ballot Measure

We ask you to become informed and make your own decision on Measure 1-88, a $48 million bond measure to build a new elementary school, remodel Baker High, and other work, including energy efficiency and security upgrades.

Join Us

We Baker County Democrats are your friends and neighbors in high-desert, far-eastern, rural Oregon, who are advocating for a society that works for all of us in this American democracy. We choose to persevere in an era of severe political division, guided by a vision of underlying unity and mutual high regard.
